The Merde Factor Paul West

"The Merde Factor" is his fifth volume of the fictional adventures of Paul West, an Englishman, in Paris. His first novel on Paul West was "A Year in the Merde". If you know the French language, I reckon that you would enjoy more than I, because Stephen Clarke, a British, studied French at Oxford.

The Merde Factor (Paul West, #5) by Stephen Clarke

The Merde Factor is as entertaining and well-written as the previous four adventures of Englishman Paul West and definitely worth a recommendation if you have read the others. As the book is relatively short and therefore the story is quite straight forward it unfortunately lacks a bit of the typical sense of humour and hilarious situations Paul had to deal with the last four times.

A couple of years ago, a Czech theatre company, Listovani, put on a great live reading of my novel The Merde Factor. It was one actor reading Paul West's first-person narrative, and an actress reading the dialogue of all the other roles. We toured the Czech Republic twice, and it was a big success. I've now decided to do something similar in ...
